WALL STREET. Monday, Nov. 16 .- Reports

by the continued decline in Delaware & Hud-factory explanation.

bilts are after the property.

time has declined over 25 points.

on, which broke 4 points without any satis-

It is the prevailing belief that the Vandercall.

The steamship La Bourgogne brought $220,600 gold to Lazard Freres, and the Normannia $385,000 to Heidelbach. Ickel-heimer & Co., making the total arrivals since sept. 12 224,279,977. The total on the way chased 400,000 oddees of article Pol-70.

The total sales at the New York Stock Exchange to-day were 184,000 shares of listed stocks, 30,000 ounces of silver and 4,000 barrels of Pennsylvania oil.

The stock within a comparatively

NEW YORK, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1891.

ESOP ON CURRENT EVENTS.

An Ass, carrying a load of wood, passed through a pond. As he

PRICE ONE CENT.

Madison Square Garden Now the Mecca of Breeders.

Big Crowd Early on Hand to Break in Delaware and Hudson See the Beauties. the Feature of the Market.

The C., B, and Q.'s Quarterly Divi- Most of the 1,066 Horses Entered morning, the like of which has never been approached. Prizes are offered for equine beauties only, but in admiration the honors from the Continent, with selling orders from which now occupies the Madison Square Gar-den, will be divided between the lovely girls London, depressed the whole market this this morning there were 415 horses in the stalls out of the 1,066 entered for the show. They had been coming in since Saturday afternoon, and they have not stopped coming Outside of Delaware & Hudson the decline was 14 to 114 per cent., but after midday a partial recovery ensued. The transactions were only moderate, rooting up 11,000 shares up to 12 o'clock.

Already in the Stalis.

Industrial stocks were relatively firmer than railways. Distillery & Cattle Feeding sold up to 5694, the highest price ever attained, but afterwards lost a part of the improvement.

1 Arabian stallion, 51 standard bred trotters, stall to the right of the main entrance, is the Arabian thoroughbred stallion presented by the Sultan of Turkey to Gen. Grant. He is No. 6 on the catalogue, and a beautiful white

THE ANNEX ON TWENTY-SEVENTH STREET. beauties only, but in admiration the honors of the seventh annual exhibition of the National Horse Show Association of America, which now occupies the Madison Square Garden, will be divided between the lovely girls who go to see and the beautiful horses that are there to be seen.

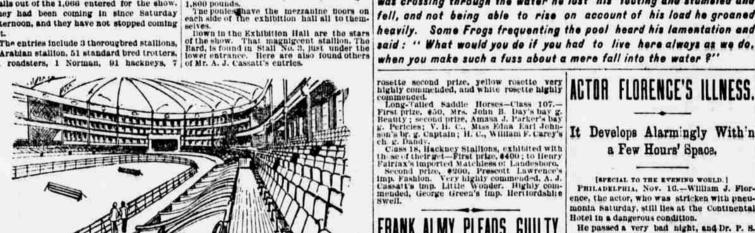

When the doors were opened at 8 o'clock this morning there were 415 horses in the stalls out of the 1,060 entered for the show.

He have to Twenty-Savenii Street.

Another beauty on this floor of the annex is imported Loyalist, a bay stalling, late the roperty of the Prince of Wales. Loyalist is who go to see and the beautiful horses that are there to be seen.

Cobs. hunters and hackneys occupy the rest of the stalls on the first floor.

A massive draught animal on the second floor of the annex will attract attention. He is the shire stallion. No. 010, Cariton Ivo. He is less than three years old, but weighs 1,800 pounds. was crossing through the water he lost his feeting and stumbled and fell, and not being able to rise on account of his load he grouned rosette second prize, yellow rosette very highly commended, and white rosette highly commended. Long-Talled Saddle Horses-Class 107.— First prize, $50, Mrs. John B. Day's bay g. Beauty; second prize, Amasa J. Parker's bay g. Pericies; V. H. C., Miss Edna Earl Johnson's br. g. Captain; H. C., William F. Carey's ch. g. Dandy, Class in Harbony St. He.

ch. g. Dandy.
Class 18, Hackney Stallions, exhibited with the see of their get—First prize, $400; to Henry Fairfax's imported Matchless of Landesboro, Second prize, $200, Prescott Lawrence's
imp. Fashion. Very highly commended, A. J.
Cassatt's imp. Little Wonder. Highly commended, George Green's imp. Heritordshipe Swell.

FRANK ALMY PLEADS GUILTY

No Defense Offered for the Killing of Christie Warden.

the murderer of Christic Warden at Hanover, arrived here this afternoon for his trial. At 2.30 P. M. Almy and four deputies er clerk Griswold read the complaint and clerk Griswold read the complaint and large results.

Almy recalled his first plea and pleaded from the balance of the company left here this morning for Buffale to the company left here this morning for Buffale to the engagement there. jurgrs will be notified that their services will

Said to Have Committed Suicide in an Uptown Boarding-House.

George C. Jones, of 17 West Thirtleth

ing the nuisance at the Standard Gaslight Company's works at One Hundred and Fifteeath street and East River, which the Board had ordered to be closed to-merrow.

President Bostwick, Vice-President Dana,
Secretary McKerge, Chief Engineer Eyner, Directors Tillord and Brockway, with their counsel, were present.

The Standard people declared that they
with the demands of the Board.

It was stated that the Company lights
2,700 street lamps and supplies about 15.000 consumers. Al these will be loft in darkness if the order of the Board is enforced.

Already, it was said, the Company had lost 1,500 custemers since the determination of the Board had been announced.

The Stath race looked a moral for Ma Belle, Barring such accidents as are likely to happen in such a large end. Martin got her fathy of dangerous for a time had belie had no different possible to compty with the demands of the Board.

Mr. Deane, who is a Republican, was a candigate for re-election in the Fiftreenth District at the late election. His Democratic opponent was k. B. Osiograe.

Mr. Deane's success is claimed, but the claim is confested by the Democrate, who allege errors of counting and irregularities of return in Dutchess and Columbia Counties.

WAKELYS FATE IN DOUBT. Secretary McKerge, Chief Engineer Egner, Directors Tillord and Brockway, with their commest, were present.

The Standard people declared that they were making every effort possible to compty with the demands of the Board.

It was stated that the Company lights of 2,700 street lamps and supplies about 15,000 consumers. At these will be left in darkness if the order of the Board is enforced. Already, it was said, the Company had lost 1,500 customers since the determination of the Board had been announced.

The Health Commissioners, after hearing the remonstrants, went into executive session to consider the matter of extending the tilms in which the Company can abate its nuisance.

When the Commissioners had concluded the man, Dies at Lexington.

makers, and it was a day long to be remem-bered by them. Five favorites woo, and the

The first race sent to the post a lot of sprinters. Houston opened up favorite because he had been heavily played in town When his owner, M. F. Dwyer, saw that the track was still heavy he saked permission to scratch, for Houston cannot walk is the must religible refused to allow the horse to be scratched, so Mr. Dwyer hedged counterplies of his bet on Lucre. After the race he was serry, for Lambley kept Houston on the extreme outfor Lambley kept Houston on the ex side all the way and, finding fairly dry won handily. May D. was second and D. John third. Lucre, by the way, will be somebody's bank roll before the meeting is over. She is like the Athalaria filly, with a wonderful burst of speed for three

THE EVENING WORLD named five winners and four of the second place horses at Guttenburg Saturday.

The owner of the staillon Nolson, C. H. Nelson, begins work on his new trottlag track at Waterville, Mo., to-day.

ARE you subject to Headaches? Brant-chortise will cortainly prevent them.

Finishes Ahead of Saunterer in Guttenburg's

ALDERMAN MAC WINS AGAIN

Fourth Race.

Double Cross Leads the Two-Year-Olds in the First Event.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACE. Nov. 16 .-The weather to-day was not exactly pleasant crowd journeyed to the Guttenburg track this

The card was an attractive one, and this no doubt was the cause of the good attendance. Six events, well filled, were collected on the programme, and some excellent sport was promised despite the bad weather.

The rain did not affect the track as one might think, and it was in pretty fair condition when the first race was called. not affect the fields to any extent.

interesting from the fact that the distance was seven furlongs, and this was the first time since the meeting began that they have been asked to go that far.

Irregular was a hot favorite and was heavily played, but was never in the hunt.

Double Cross; a well-played second choice, made nearly all the running and won easily from Joe Kelly. McKeever was third.

Judge Burke did not like Martin's riding of the tayorite and he reprimanded the boy.

The second race went to the favorite, Alderman Mac. There was good betting against him, however. Sandstone was second choice, but the Issaquena filly, at 6 to 1, split the pair-

Toano was a red-hot favorite in the third race, with Gertle D. a good second choice. Mountain Deer was well played also, while Roquefort and Rico were outsiders at liberal Purse $400; for two-year-olds; selling allowances; seven furlongs.

Sandstone, closely followed by Maywood, Granite, Alderman Mac and Issaquena filly, inade the running to the far turn, where Alderman Mac began to close, followed by the Alderman Mac took up the running when they straightened out and stayed there to the end, though Issaquena filly rushed at the end and the Alderman only got home by a head. Issaquena filly was a length in front of Sandstone. Time—1.4444.

Mutuels naid. Straight. 58, 55, place. $4.20.

Sandstone. Time—1.4694.
Mutuels paid: Straight, $6.55; place, $4.20.
Issaquena filly paid $0.05. Purse $500; selling allowances; six and a half furiongs.

Gertie D. set the pace to the turn, with Toano, Roquefort and Mountain Deer close up.

Gertie D. quit at the head of the stretch and then Toano came on, winning easily by a leagth and a hair from Roquefori, who was a neck in front of Gertie D. Time 1.2336.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $2.75; place, $2.50. Roquefort paid $5.25.

FOURTH BACK. Purse $600; seven furlouge. Purse 2000; seven furtonge.

Sartere. Weight. Jorkeys. Strt. Hif. Pia.

Biltzeu. 76. Evans 5 2 3

Houston 102. H. Penny 2 3 2

Houston 102. Cos 3 2 3

Lynosure 115. Lambley 4 4 4

Goster 94 Blake 1 5 5

Betting Nauntrees, 1 to 3 and o at Blitzen, 5 and 4 to 1. Houston, and 6 to 5; Cynosure, 15 and 2 cliester, 30 and 6. and 7. Gloster, 30 and 6.

Gloster went off in tront and made the running for a quarter. Then he gave way to Houstob, who led to the turn, followed by Houston, who led to the turn, followed by Hilizen, Saunterer and Cynosure.

Blitzen then went to the front and was never atterwards headed, winning easily by two lengths from Saunterer, who was eight lengths in front of Houston. Time—1.295, Suttents paid: Straight, $11.40; place, $1.20. Saunterer paid $2.30.

Pelham, 25 and 8.
Periid went to the front soon after the start, and young Flyan kept him there all the way, winning handlily by one-half length from Esquiman, who was second throughout.

Hover was third, three lengths away. Time —1.03%.
Mutuels paid: Straight, $4.10; piace, $2.00. Esquiman paid $2.70.

SIXTH HACE. Purse $400 : selling allowances; seven fur-

Little Minnie 110. Lambley 10-1 4-1 Longstreet 110. German 20-1 8-1 Longstreet 110. Gorman 20-1 8-1 Longstreet 111. Feature of the Market.

The C., B, and Q.'s Quarterly Dividend Mavenum 111. Foster 20-1 8-1 Longstreet 111. Longstreet 111. Longstreet 112. Longstreet 112. Longstreet 112. Longstreet 112. Longstreet 113. Longstreet 113

Gloucester Races.

GLOCRSTER, N. J., Nov. 16.—Results of the races:

First Race—Seven and a quarter furlongs.—
Grafton won, Franklin second and Mackenzie third. Time—1.404.

Second Race—Five-eighths of a mile.—
Botheration won, Baby second and Darius third. Time—1.004.

Third Race—Four and a hair furiongs—
Censor won, Foxhill second and Rowe third.

Time—0.874.

Fourth Race—Seven-eights of a mile.—
Oberlin won, Cartoon second and Flattery third. Time—1.314.

Chicago Races. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. GARPIELD PARE, CHICAGO, NOV. 16 .- Resul

or to-days races:

First Race—One and one-eighth miles.—

Bob Thomas won, Winslow second and Speculator third. Time—1.584.

Second Race.—J. J. won, Gunshot second and Whittier third. Time—1.25%.

Third Race—Three-lourties of a mile.—Kismet won, Jim Dunn second and Rouser third. Time—1.25%.

A. A. U. Board of Governors Rejects the 9 1-2 Seconds Record.

dend had been advanced from 1 to 134 per cent. quarterly.

The stock speculation during the last hour of trading drifted into dulness once more and transactions were few and far botween. The firmer feeling brought about by the increase in the Burlington & Quiscy dividend rate continued to the close. Still the foreign financial troubles hang as a cloud over the home market, and while the bears do not attempt to utilize the bad news it holds the bulls in check.

The Burlington & Quincy dividend is payable bec. 15 to stockholders of record Nov. 20.

The Treasury Department to-dny purchased 409,000 ounces of sliver at 144.50 a 144.70. The central or governing body of the Ama-teur Athletic Union of the United States opened its annual session in Parlor L. Astor ouse, shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon. The following delegates, representing the

The following delegates, representing the several associations composing the Union, of were present:

James E. Sullivan and William B. Curtis, Metropolitan Association; Julius Harder, the Turner Bund; Harry McMilian and Howard Ferry, the Atlantic Association; Waller Stimpson and Jinss Taylor, the New England Association; A. D. Hartwell and F. E. Stearns, of the Central Association were not represented.

The Board refused to reopen the claim of Luther B. Carr for the record of Wig seconds for 100 yards, alleged to have been made at Princeton Oct. 18, 1890. Carr's record of Wig seconds for 100 yards, alleged to have been made at Princeton Oct. 18, 1890. Carr's record of Wig seconds for 100 yards, made at Princeton and Lawrenceville June 6, 1891, was referred to the new Record Committee.

The application of J. W. Rich for records for the standing broad jump and W. C. Downs for the one-quarter mile were referred to the new Record Committee.

A proposition to add a 125-pound class to the wrestling championships was referred to the Committee on Boxing and Wrestling.

W. B. Coates offered a proposition that the limit of rounds in boxing events be increased. Reterred to new Board, as was a proposition to define the term 'novice."

An addition was made to rule 3 giving the officials at an event the power to disqualify as becomes a gentleman.

Notice was made of amendment to section 3, article 4, of Constitution relative to the character of prizes.

The new law is drawn to admit of a wider range in jeweiry, toilet and table service and the like.

To the Manhattan Athletic Club was granted the privilege of holding the ten-mile flat and the two-mile steeplechase championships of the A. A. U.

The baseball pennant for the year was awarded to the New Jersey Athletic Club.

By resolution it was recommended that a series of baseball games be played next it was rumored that she attempted suicide on Saturday night last.

Her father, husband and brother deny the report, however, and say the shooting was accidental.
The police are attempting to ascertain the facts in the case.
Hichard C. Wilde, the woman's husband, is agent of the Manhattan Silver Plate Company, with offices at 403 Market street. He says the wound is a slight one, that the shooting was accidental and that his wire, who has been ill, was alone with a servant in the house at the time. He will give me explanation of how the accident occurred.

Her facts in the case.

Alice Adams Consol.

[From Puck.]
Muynd—Did you read that poem I marked for you? Miss Smatter—Yes.
Mr. Muynd—What did you think of it?
Miss Smatter—Oh, wasn't it long? ____

AMONG THE WHEELMEN

The Hudson County Wheelmen will elect officers in February. On Thankagiving Day the annual dinner of the Irvington Cycle Club will be held. The Club will into Bound Brook, where the collation will be in waiting. A very large day is looked forward to. F. C. Burnham is the new President of the Hart-ford Wheelmen.

INTERIOR OF THE GARDEN. coaching stallions, 71 horses in harness, 41 carriage horses, 14 tandems, 6 four-in-hands, 23 cobs in harness, 28 ponies in harness, 94 saddie-horses, 12 Galloways, 11 tandems, 95 comparison of the Twenty-sixth street side of the Exhibi-were only 651 entries.

There was a crowd around the Fourth avenue entrance, where the horses entered, as early as 6 o'clock this morning, and as the dainty stepping beauties passed in, there were murmurs of admiration even from those not versed in horse lore.

Within the big Garden there was an animated scene. Attendants were bustling about putting the finishing touches on the amphitheatre, which is decorated simply with the Association's colors—yellow and black.

Among the prominent gentlemen in the turr world who made their appearance in the faired side.

Among the prominent gentlemen in the turr world who made their appearance in the faired side.

Among the prominent gentlemen in the turr world who made their appearance in the faired side.

Among the prominent gentlemen in the turr world who made their appearance in the faired of the Maison Square Garden Company; Messrs. John and Harry Alexander, Mr. Clint Smith. Mr. Burdette-Coutts, John A. Logan, jr. Tom Hitchcock and J. L. Clark.

Company; Messis, ander, Mr. Clint Smith, Mr. Burdette-Coutts, and Mr. B

It Develops Alarmingly Within a Few Hours' Space.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WOLLD.]
PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 16.-William J. Florce, the actor, who was stricken with pneuonia Saturday, still lies at the Continental Hotel in a dangerous condition. He passed a very bad night, and Dr. P. S.

Donnellan remained at his side constantly. Early this morning Mr. Florence began to sink, but the doctor succeeded in arousing him, and he has since continued to show improvement. The physicians are unable to say what the result will be. LATER.-The physicians held a half hour's consultation about noon and pronounced Mr. riorence a little better. His condition, however, is still critical.

2.30 F. M.—There has been no change in Mr. Florence's condition. While seriously sick his physician apprehends no dangerous results.

of pneumonia.

He contracted a severe cold early last week, but paid little strendion to it until Friday night, when he became much worse, and was scarcely able to perform his part in "The leir at Law."

On Saturday he was advised to remain in its room, but he insisted on appearing. After home. He was twenty-nine years old. The Coroner's office was notified.

Jones was the head cloak cutter in the employ of Lord & Taylor.

He was found dead in his room about 0 o'clock by a servant girl.

At Lord & Taylor's it was stated that Jones had been employed there since he was a twelve years old, and bore a good reputation. He was at work saturday as usual, it was said.

At the house 17 West Thirtieth street all information regarding the death of Jones was refused to the reporter, and an air of mystery was given to the case.

On Saturday he was advised to remain in his room, but he insisted on appearing: After saturday in pit's performance he gaye a supper to Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, Mr. Jefferson and sevent invited guests were also present. If was compelled to leave the table and re-tife to his room.

Mrs. Florence, who is in Europe, has been outlified by cable and instructed to return by the first steamer.

A report reached New York at noon to-day that Mr. Florence was dead.

The physicians' bulletin issued at 11.30 o'clock, however, aid he was much better and was still improving.

dale to visit State Senator Gifbert A. Deane, penent was E. B. Oslogne.

Mr. Deane's success is claimed, but the claim is contested by the Democrats, who allege errors of counting and irregularities of return in Dutchess and Columbia Counties.

WAKELYS FATE IN DOUBT.

He May Loss His License for Selling Liquor on Election Day.

The Board of Excise to-day tried charges preferred against Jimmie Wakely, of Fortysecond street and Sixth avenue, and ex-Assemblyman Bronnan, of 18 Grand street, by members of the City Reform Club for Keeping the ir saloons open on Election Day, contrary to law.

The Board reserved decision in Wakely's case, but voted against revoking Brennan's license.

I wo other cases were referred to the counsel for the Board, pending decision.

Beard, cashier of the Cheyenne National Bank, which closed on Friday, killed himself this morning with a revolver.
Heard was despondent over the failure.
The United States Examiner in charge of the bank, says it will pay all its claims in full.

Also and was despondent over the failure.
The United States Examiner in charge of the bank, says it will pay all its claims in full.

PRICE ONE CENT.

heavily. Some Frogs frequenting the pool heard his lamentation and Rufus Lisle, the Veteran Turf-

The sport at Guttenburg on Saturday was very good. The card was a good one, the weather perfect and the attendance large. Betting was spirited, and as favorite after favorite won the public gained confidence favorite won the public garden were great gaps and plunged heavily. There were great gaps cut in the wads of money carried by the book cut in the wads of money carried by the book sixth should have won, but didn't.

and then dying away to nothing.

It was hard to determine the tavorite in the second race. Alms T., Uncle Sim, Vessite and Payot were all heavily bested. A com-mission from M. F. Dwyer made the latters Police Inspector Conlin took the 11 o'clock train for Philadelphia this morning, this sudden departure being caused by the reception of a telegram from Mr. Florence's sister, in which it was stated that although the sick man had passed what might be termed a comfortable night his physicians say that the chances are one hundred to one against his recevery.

Mr. Florence is suffering from a severe form of pneumonia.

He contracted a severe cold early law work.

The talent took 4 to 5 against Toane is the opening betting of the third race, and were gind to yet it. It looks 1 sure money, and so it proved. Salvator's ex-stable compadion won in a gallop. Datayrian ran a good race and beat Salisbury out for the place.

Kimberly also looked a sure thing in the fourth race. He won, but Lizzle hustled him so lively in the stretch that for a time the hearts of the backers of Kimberly thrilled painfully. Taylor, however, managed to calride the infantile boane and landed Kimberly a winner by a scant length. Since roce a good race on My Fellow.

SENATOR DEANE'S ILLNESS.

Little Fred was made favorite over Zenobia in the fifth race, and rightly so, for he defeated her at precisely the same weights and at the same distance last time they met. Zenobia managed to win, but the next time for His Recovery.

INVASPOCIATED PRESS.

HUDSON, Nov. 1d.—Dr. H. Lyle Smith, of this city, who was called yesterday in consultation with Dr. H. G. Westlake, of Hillsdale to visit state Senator Gilbert A. Deane.

$1,100.

It has been decided by a number of well-known Maine horsemen to build a mile track at Cape Elizabeth, near Fortland. It will be the first track of this length in that section.

American Sugar Ref.
American Sugar R. ydd.
American Sugar R. ydd.
American Cotton Oth ydd.
Amer. Cotton Oth ydd.
Atch. Top. 2 Sugar Ref.
Canada Southern.
Chee. 4 Ohio
Chee. 4 Ohio
Chee. 4 Ohio Ist yref.
Chicago Gas.
Chic. Bur. 4 Unincy.
Chicago & Northwest.
Chic. Mil. 4 St. Paul.
Chic. Mil. 4 St. P. pref.
Chic. Ref. 1 & Fac.
Clev. C. C. 4 St. L.
Co. 4 Hock Valley
Commercial Cable. Commercial Cable
Del. Lack & West
Delaware & Hudson
Dis. & Cattle Feed

Mining Stocks.

The following are the closing quotations of mining stocks at the Consolidated Exchange and C. Manhattan c...

with offices at 403 Market stree.

the wound is a slight one, that the otting was accidental and that his wire, o has been iii, was alone with a servent in shouse at the time. He will give no exanation of how the accident occurred.

Fell from a Fire-Escape.

Sarah Safron, of Cortland street, fell from the fire-escape into the yard this afterman constant of the skuff.

Sustained a fracture of the skuff.

Gouverneur Hospital.

Gouverneur Hospital.

T.Co. 16

27 cobs under saddie, 28 ponies under saddie, 26 pony stallions and brood mares, 222 hunters and jupers, 21 park police horses and 279 entries for special classes.

At last year's show, which was the greatest horse show America had then seen, there were only 651 entries.

There was a crowd around the Fourth

A practive side of the Exhibi-Rose and or the Exhibi-Rose and so here.

At the Fourth avenue end is Prescot Lawrence's beautiful imported hackney stallion. Fashion, No. 81. Among his competitors are john A. Logan, Jr., Young Derby, Mr. A. J. Cassatta's Matchiess, H. E. Bloodgoods star of Megal and Dr. Seward Webb's Brown Fashion.

in-hands and handsome roadsters.

Grooms led in proud, arch-necked stallions and prancing hackneys, and the irrepressible small boy was there with his pet pony.

Downstairs in the main exhibition hall and out in the two-story annex the stable boys and the performance over the lence only will count. bownstairs in the two-story annex the stable boys and the performance over the tence only will count.

A recess until 8 o'clock will follow, when there will be a parade of stallous entered in classes 1, 2, 3, 4, 17, 18, 19, 20, 33 and 110. At 8.30 P. M. the ladders saddle horses in classes 2 will be judged, and then will come the most exciting event of the day, the judging of the hunters in class 74, performances over the fences only 10 count.

The gentlemen selected to act as judges of the different classes are:
Thoroughpred Stall us and Arabs—J. G. K. Lawrence, James talway, New York, J. H. Bradford, Boston, and Dr. A smith, Torouta, Out.

Trotters and Roadsters—David Bonner, W. B. Dickerman, Courtland D. Moss and A. C. Hall, New York.

Normans and Shires—George C.